Carrying on the 60-year legacy of the LPGA Championship, KPMG, the PGA of America and the LPGA have joined forces to create the KPMG Women's PGA Championship, the first-of-its-kind major championship. The KPMG Women's PGA Championship brings together a world-class, annual major golf championship with a women's leadership summit and an ongoing charitable initiative to inspire and develop new generations of female leaders.

The championship is also accepting volunteers, particularly those who would like to serve as a course marshal. Adult volunteers, ages 22 and older, are required to work three to four, four-hour shifts and contribute a minimum of 12 hours total.

All volunteers will receive a uniform (golf shirt and headwear), a credential providing site access from Tuesday through Sunday of event week, preferred complimentary parking, discount in the Championship Golf Shop, a Championship program, and a limited number of meal and water vouchers. The volunteer fee for adults is $96.
