Summer Junior Golf Camp at Golden Horseshoe Helps Every Player Improve

Williamsburg, Va. (June 25, 2015) – The Golden Horseshoe Golf Club holds its annual Summer Junior Golf Camp for golfers ages 8 to 17 from July 27-30. The Club's PGA golf staff, with more than 70 years of combined instruction experience, gives individual attention to each attendee, keeping classes at a six-to-one, student-to-teacher ratio. Instruction on all the skills necessary to become a better golfer is included during the week-long program.

Junior golfers will have the opportunity to play under the supervision of golf staff counselors on the nine-hole Spotswood Course each afternoon. Young golfers also can play the Golden Horseshoe Gold and Green Courses with their parents at a special twilight rate available for adults.

Golden Horseshoe Summer Junior Camp includes:

- Instruction Monday through Thursday from 8:30 a.m. until noon
- Range balls during session and in the afternoon

- Refreshments at 10 a.m. daily
- Play day on Thursday with prizes
- Before-and-after swing video analysis for campers to take home
- Golf on Spotswood with counselors in the afternoons (optional)
- Twilight golf on Golden Horseshoe courses in afternoons with paying adult

The Golden Horseshoe Golf Club is set in a Certified Audubon Cooperative Sanctuary among Virginia hardwoods and the rolling terrain of the Tidewater region. The Gold Course, a classic designed by Robert Trent Jones Sr. more than 50 years ago, is located steps away from the Spa of Colonial Williamsburg, the Williamsburg Inn and the Williamsburg Lodge. The adjacent Green Course, designed by his son Rees Jones 25 years ago, represent the first father-son layout in the country. Jones Senior also designed the popular executive-length Spotswood Course.

Revenue from golf play on the Golden Horseshoe Golf Club's three public courses supports the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation's research, preservation and education initiatives.

The Colonial Williamsburg Foundation preserves, restores and operates Virginia's 18th-century capital of Williamsburg, Va., as a 21st-century center for history and citizenship. Innovative and interactive experiences, such as the street theater Revolutionary City® and the RevQuest: Save the Revolution! series of technology-assisted alternate reality games, highlight the relevance of the American Revolution to contemporary life and the importance of an informed, active citizenry. The Colonial Williamsburg experience includes more than 400 restored or reconstructed original buildings, renowned museums of decorative arts and folk art, extensive educational outreach programs for students and teachers, lodging, culinary options from historic taverns to casual or elegant dining, the Golden Horseshoe Golf Club featuring 45 holes designed by Robert Trent Jones Sr. and his son Rees Jones, a full-service spa and fitness center, pools, retail stores and gardens. Philanthropic support and revenue from admissions, products and hospitality operations sustain Colonial Williamsburg's educational programs and preservation initiatives.
