

WINTERGREEN SUMMER LEARNING VACATIONS HIT THE MARK

WINTERGREEN, Va. (June 25, 2015) —Wintergreen Resort's slate of Summer Learning Vacations, special classes and experiences are designed to captivate, educate, and just be enjoyed. Guests at the four-season destination nestled in Virginia's Blue Ridge Mountains can select from a menu of cultural and sporting ventures and indulge in as many as strike their fancy.

This year, Wintergreen Resort celebrates its 40th anniversary and is giving back to guests with multiple opportunities to learn new activities, try something different, and enjoy their time on the mountain even more.

For the athletically inclined, explore options such as stand-up paddle boarding, the fastest growing participation sport in the country. Or, try your hand at archery, learn mountain biking basics, or take a tennis or golf clinics.

Culturally minded guests may tune in to music and artistic learning seminars from Chamber and Orchestral Music to History of the Maestro or Stranger than Fiction: Great Art Heists in History. A wide variety of programs are part of the 20th annual Wintergreen Performing Arts Summer Music Festival.

Explorers can energize and breathe plenty of fresh mountain air while hiking Wintergreen's multiple nature trails, all marked and color-coded for the hiker's level of expertise. Wintergreen Nature Foundation's Wild Summer Camp will captivate ages 6-12 with tike-sized hikes, outdoor games and crafts, and discoveries of Wintergreen's many natural features and creatures.

Learning to relax on vacation can be challenging and The Spa at Wintergreen has the solution. Its serenity lounge allows calming quiet time for unwinding before and after each treatment. Spa guests have access to the adjacent Wintergreen Aquatic & Fitness Center with indoor Olympic pool, workout equipment, and outdoor Jacuzzis with mountain views.

Wintergreen Resort accommodations are ideal for girlfriend getaways, couples, and families. Options include 230 villa-style condominiums and rental homes, from studio suites to seven-bedroom homes, each offering fully equipped kitchen, and comfortable living area, most with fireplaces and a balcony or deck.
