LĀNA'I CITY, HI, September 29, 2015 –What golfer hasn't dreamed of having his or her own golf course? No crowds, no waiting for tee times, open just to friends, the professionals there just to help you.

That dream can now be a reality at the Manele Golf Course at the Four Seasons Resort Lānaʻi, only nine miles from Maui.

The "Make Manele Your Own" golf experience is a dream-come-true opportunity to possess the best of Hawai'i golf, where every hole on a magnificent Jack Nicklaus Signature design offers heavenly views of the Pacific.

One of the elite venues in the game, the breathtaking Manele layout is built on lava outcroppings, featuring three holes on the cliffs. Its signature hole is No. 12, a par 3 where the tee area is 150 feet above the crashing surf, challenging golfers with a dramatic shot to the green.

Having earned numerous awards since opening in 1993, the Manele Golf Course is the No. 2-ranked resort course among all Hawai'i Golf destinations (Golfweek magazine) and No. 32 among all resort courses in the United States.

The Four Seasons Resort Lānaʻi also has earned the Premier Golf Resorts Gold Medal from GOLF magazine and with recent improvements made to the overall golf experience at the Manele Golf Course, golfers continue to discover something new every time they play.

The "Make Manele Your Own" golf experience is priced at $10,000 and includes:
