

Mission Inn Resort & Club To Host Whiskey Pairing Dinner on Jan. 30

HOWEY-IN-THE-HILLS, Fla. (Dec. 1, 2015) – Mission Inn Resort & Club’s El Conquistador restaurant will welcome guests to a five-course whiskey pairing dinner on Saturday, Jan. 30. The meal will be creatively prepared by the resort’s Executive Chef Danny Connolly and El Conquistador Chef Krystle Seamon, supported by the expertise of Michael Ring, whiskey master for the Brown-Forman family of fine whiskies in Florida.

The menu will include Kentucky pork belly seared in Woodford Reserve Kentucky Straight Rye Whiskey atop grilled fennel and apple relish, whiskey sour sorbet, Old Forester marinated braised beef short rib, bourbon pecan tart, dark chocolate cheesecake, whiskey caramel sauce, and Gentleman Jack Tennessee Whiskey.

The meal, to start at 7 p.m., is priced at $95 per person plus service charge and tax. Members and resort guests are $75 per person. Seating is limited and on a first-come basis; reservations are required.

Nestled among Central Florida's rolling hills in the town of Howey-in-the-Hills, a 35-minute drive northwest of Orlando, Mission Inn's amenities include two championship golf courses, tennis academy, full-service Spa Marbella, marina and boat rental, fishing and numerous eco-tourism activities. In addition to El Conquistador, the Spanish colonial style property features three other restaurants: La Margarita, La Hacienda and Nicker's.

Call 352/324-3101, x-7161 to make reservations for the Jan. 30 whiskey pairing dinner. For additional information about the resort, visit www.missioninnresort.com.
