

ULTIMATE UNLIMITED GOLF VACATION IN PARADISE AWAITS ON LĀNAʻI

Even When Playing All Day, Each Round is a One-of-a-Kind Experience

LĀNAʻI CITY, HI, February 17, 2016 – Passionate golfers whose travel plans revolve around playing the world’s best courses—and playing them as much as possible—will want to put Four Seasons Resort Lānaʻi on the top of their wish list for 2016.

The Unlimited Golf Package at Four Seasons Resort Lānaʻi includes golf from sunup to sunset on the award-winning Manele Golf Course, where all 18 holes on a magnificent Jack Nicklaus Signature design offer heavenly views of the Pacific.

“Playing the Manele Golf Course is something magical no golfer will ever forget,” said Scott Ashworth, Manele’s director of golf, of the resort course ranked No. 2 among all Hawaiʻi golf destinations (Golfweek magazine) and No. 32 among all resort courses in the United States. “Golfers always want to come back for more, so this is a great opportunity to do just that. And there is an incredible bonus – stunning views that just may make you take your eye off the ball.”

One of the elite venues in the game—yet still very much untouched and uncrowded—the breathtaking Manele layout is built on lava outcroppings and features three holes along rugged oceanside cliffs. Its signature hole is No. 12, a par 3 where the tee sits 150 feet above the crashing surf. Five sets of tees ensure a fair, fun challenge for every golfer, but do-or-die shots over natural gorges and ravines must be precise.

Just as golfers continue to enjoy something new about Manele every time they play, which this year includes access to golf boards, ocean nine tours, Rock N’ Range musical interlude and pro tips every Thursday, and designated instruction clinics and fittings. Junior golfers (17 and under) play free every day after noon.

This same excitement extends throughout Four Seasons Resort Lānaʻi, which recently celebrated its grand opening. The new Resort features 217 guestrooms including 51 suites, lobbies and seating areas for contemplation; multiple dining experiences such as the signature ONE FORTY, NOBU LANAI, VIEWS at Manele Golf and Sports Bar; an immersive spa and wellness program; luxury retail boutiques featuring Missoni, Jimmy Choo and the Lanai Collection.

Inspired by Hawaiʻi's diverse influences, the redesigned interiors feature walls of teak and zebra wood and mahogany floors laid with wool hand-woven area rugs. Fully integrated and intuitive lighting, temperature, service, and privacy controls offer a highly responsive in-room technology experience that also includes a 75-inch, platinum-bezel LED television panel, in-room iPad Airs, wearable key wristbands that allow guests maximum flexibility, and more.

Outdoors, verdant botanical gardens and waterways create intimate enclaves as well as spectacular vistas of the Pacific Ocean, while serving as beautiful backdrops for works of outdoor art and sculpture. The new, lagoon-style, free-form pool features a cascading waterfall and two spas. The adults-only Retreat boasts waterfalls and lava-rock grottos that echo Lānaʻi's iconic cliffs and offer stunning views of Hulopoʻe Bay, where dolphins are a frequent sight. Delve further into the garden to find sublime sanctuaries perfect for relaxing on a secluded chaises and daybeds.

Four Seasons Resort Lānaʻi also has earned the Premier Golf Resorts Gold Medal from GOLF Magazine.
