

FOUR SEASONS RESORT LANAI ACHIEVES AAA FIVE DIAMOND RATING

Only 0.4 percent of AAA approved hotels receive the travel authority's highest rating

LANAI, HAWAII, May 10, 2016 –Four Seasons Resort Lānai has just received the coveted AAA Five Diamond designation. The Resort attained this prestigious Five Diamond rating following its recent opening February 1, 2016.

The new Four Seasons Resort Lanai features 217 guest rooms and suites, lobbies and seating areas for contemplation, multiple dining experiences such as the signature AAA Four Diamond rated ONE FORTY restaurant and NOBU LANAI, Spa, a complimentary activity program, luxury retail boutiques, tennis and the 18-hole ocean-view Jack Nicklaus Signature Manele Golf Course. A resort with its own island to explore, guests can enjoy up-country adventures on horse or UTV, fly on helicopter tours, snorkel, sail or scuba dive, explore heritage sites or simply relax on secluded beaches.

Hotels at this level employ experienced, highly qualified staff to provide the custom service luxury hotel guests expect, according to AAA. These establishments deliver unmatched guest comfort with luxurious accommodations, extraordinary facilities and many personalised amenities.

Four Seasons Resort Lanai is now part of a very select group representing the upper echelon of the hospitality industry in North America holding the AAA Five Diamond Rating.

“We are humbled and honoured to receive this designation and strong vote of confidence while establishing a loyal following of guests for this exciting destination,” says Tom Roelens, General Manager of Four Seasons Resort Lanai. “The AAA Five Diamond Award is a true testament not only to the incredible amenities our Resort and the island of Lanai offers, but to our first-rate team of employees, who go above and beyond every day delivering exceptional guest service, and who warmly and genuinely share their island home, the spirit of aloha and hospitality with our guests. We are all very proud of their hard work and dedication.”

“A major part of becoming a Five Diamond establishment is consistently exceeding expectations of even the most discriminating traveler — the AAA inspector. Five Diamond properties deliver a highly personalized, memorable experience, and we are pleased to recognize Four Seasons Resort Lanai with the Five Diamond Rating,” said Michael Petrone, Director of AAA Inspections & Diamond Ratings.
