

GOLF BONDING FOR BUDDIES – MISSION INN RESORT & CLUB OFFERS PERFECT PAL PACKAGES

Howey-in-the-Hills, Fla. (February 28, 2017) – Mission Inn Resort and Club’s two 18-hole layouts—perennial favorite El Campeón Golf Course, which celebrates its 100th birthday this year, and Las Colinas, known for wide fairways rolling over gentle rises—are the ideal tracks to challenge groups of traveling golf buddies.

The new “Golf Buddy Escape” two-night package makes the allure of this Central Florida golf resort irresistible for groups of eight or more.

Located just 45 minutes from Orlando, Mission Inn offers great value with top-level golf experiences and a full-range of amenities, dining options, and cigar-smoking spots.

The Golf Buddy Escape package is based on double occupancy and includes one shared deluxe guest room, two rounds (one round per person per day), daily breakfast buffet for each guest, use of golf range, club storage, two complimentary drink coupons, plus a Centennial gift bag with golf towel, shoe bag, and drink kouzzie.

The two-night escape package is priced at $160 per person per night (two-night minimum required; price based on double occupancy; single room pricing available). Taxes and resort fee are additional. The package requires a minimum of eight players and four guest rooms. The rate is good through 2017.

For added value and extra incentive, staying midweek (Sunday through Thursday nights) comes with a bonus of $100 per person resort credit good toward food, merchandise, beverages, and spa. (The bonus cannot be used as a credit against original packages purchased.)

Besides golf, Mission Inn's numerous offerings include the full-service Spa Marbella, Marina del Ray nautical center on Lake Harris, trap shooting, tennis, an Adventure Learning Center, and easy access to surrounding cultural happenings.

The Spanish-colonial-inspired resort also features four on-site restaurants, abundant event space, quiet courtyards and patios, and attentive staff.
