

Coming Soon: Signature Cutter & Buck Service, Straight from Toronto

SEATTLE (June 8, 2017) — This fall, Cutter & Buck will open a new state-of-the-art distribution center to better serve its Canadian customers. “This has been a dream of ours,” said Cutter & Buck CEO Joel Freet. Cutter & Buck has been in the Canadian market since 1990, and began planning the center after opening cross-border sales in 2013.

In addition to a full inventory of core styles, the facility will offer same-day ground shipping until 5 p.m. and will-call order pickups for customers in the greater Toronto area. Working in tandem with sister facilities in Renton, Washington and Hebron, Kentucky, the center will allow Cutter & Buck to reach customers in every corner of Canada faster than ever before.

Currently, the new Brampton, Ontario, facility is in the final buildout phase. It will fulfill orders from Cutter & Buck’s premium sportswear line as well as Clique’s sporty basics to corporate distributors throughout Canada.

“The market response to Cutter & Buck and Clique in Canada has been outstanding,” said Shane Brett, General Manager of New Wave Group Canada, Cutter & Buck’s distribution subsidiary in Toronto. “Now the Canadian market demand for a domestic distribution point is at the place that we must move forward with all urgency.”
